FILMS & DOCUMENTARIES

For your viewing pleasure, we've selected the following documentary, available through our partner Video Project:

At age 14, every child attending school in Germany is brought face to face with their nation's past during World War II. For many, this means confronting the reality of the Holocaust for the very first time. The Lesson explores how new generations in Germany grapple with this tragic history, following a group of children coming of age in the rural town of Fröndenberg..
